Introduction

This Digest has been prepared by the Central Statistical Office in collaboration with the Statistics Divisions of Government Departments.

The name of the department or organisation providing the statistics is shown under each table. Some of the statistics provided by departments are actually collected by other organisations such as nationalised boards and trade associations. The assistance provided by these organisations, too numerous to mention individually, is gratefully acknowledged.

The figures in the Digest are mainly totals for calendar months or monthly averages.

Provisional data

Some figures in Monthly Digest are provisional and may be subject to revision in later issues. This applies particularly to data for the most recent time periods.

Definitions

A Supplement of Definitions and Explanatory Notes, published with the February issue, gives detailed definitions of all the terms and units used in the Digest. The following general definitions should be noted in using the Digest.

Area covered. Except where otherwise stated, all statistics relate to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

Consumption and stocks. The terms 'consumption', 'disposals' and 'stocks' are defined in detail in the Supplement to the Digest. Figures of consumption and stocks are seasonal and should be used with caution. The stocks figures given may often relate to only part of the total stocks in the country.

External trade. Owing to differences in coverage and timing, figures of imports and exports are not always comparable with those for production, consumption and stocks.

Symbois and conventions used

Symbols. The following symbols are used throughout:

- .. not available
- nil or less than half the final digit shown
- * average (or total) of five weeks

Change of basis. A line drawn across a column between two consecutive figures indicates that the figures above and below the line have been compiled on different bases and are not strictly comparable. In each case a footnote explains the difference.

Rounding of figures. In tables where figures have been rounded the the nearest final digit, there may be a slight discrepancy between the sum of the constituent items and the total as shown.

Recent data

Figures for recent periods in a number of tables have been affected by the dispute in the coal mining industry and should be used with caution.

Changes

Production of the Digest is being computerised and the style of the tables produced by this method is slightly different from others in the book, although the content remains unchanged.

Over the next few months the proportion of computerised tables will increase, but until the exercise is completed there will be a mixture of styles which we trust will not detract from the usefulness of the data.

CSO Databani

Certain tables in this publication contain data available via the CSO Databank. Wherever this occurs the appropriate four digit identifier is included at the top of the column of figures. This is to facilitate access to the data in computer readable form and make available longer runs of data than appear in these tables.

The CSO databank is a collection of macro-economic time-series on sale to the public. The service is run on CSO's behalf by CISI-Wharton Econometric Forecasting Associates, further details can be obtained from them at:

Ebury Gate, 23 Lower Belgrave Street, London SWIW ONW, tel: 01-730-8171.

Equals total final expenditure on goods and services at market prices less imports of goods and services.
 Equals gross domestic product at market prices less taxes on expenditure plus subsidies.
 Estimates of the gross domestic product at constant factor cost based on statistics of output are given in Table 1.3.

1. The working population consists of the employed labour force and the unemployed (claimants); the employed labour force includes employers, self-employed and

HM Forces as well as employees in employment.

2. From April 1983, the figures of unemployment reflect the effects of the provisions in the Budget for some men aged 60 and over who no longer have to sign at an unemployment office.

3. Estimates of employees in employment up to June 1985 take account of the results of the 1983, 1984 and 1985 Labour Force surveys. Estimates for later periods include an allowance for continued undercounting (see the article on page 161 of the May 1986 Employment Gazette). Estimates of the self-employed up to mid 1985 are based on the results of the 1981, 1983, 1984 and 1985 Labour Force Surveys. The provisional estimates from September 1985 are based on the assumption that the average rate of increase between 1981 and 1985 has continued subsequently. A detailed description of the allowances is given on page 135 of the May 1986 Employment Gasette.

4. HM Forces figures, provided by the Ministry of Defence represent the total number of UK service personnel, male and female, in HM Regular Forces, wherever serving and including those on release leave. The numbers are not subject to seasonal adjustment.

5. See Note on page 25.

Regard must be taken of the effect of seasonal patterns and differences in planned annual intake levels in any comparisons of quarterly or annual intakes.
 Some personnel have a liability for Reserve Service. The figures include deaths.
 The differences between strengths at successive dates may not match the intake and outflow figures for corresponding periods because of delays in recording transfers between the Services and similar occurrences.

Note: There has been a change in the compilation of the unemployment statistics (see Employment Gazette, March/April 1986, pages 107-108). Unadjusted figures for February and March 1986 are on the new basis (estimated for February) and not directly comparable with earlier figures. It is estimated that the change reduces the total U.K. count by 50,000 on average. Seasonally adjusted figures have been revised to adjust for this and other discontinuities and are all consistent with the new coverage. The latest seasonally adjusted figures are provisional and subject to revision, mainly in the following month.

1. Percentage rates have been calculated by expressing the total numbers unemployed as percentages

Sources: Department of Employment Department of Economic Development (Northern Ireland)

- of the numbers of employees in employment, unemployed, self employed and HM forces at the appropiate mid-year.

  From April 1 1983 figures are affected by the 1983 Budget provision for some men aged 60 and over who no longer have to sign on at an unemployment benefit office.
- 3. There was a discontinuity between the June and August 1985 figures for unemployed claimants in Northern Ireland. The monthly count is based on the Northern Ireland Department of Economic Development's computer records. A reconciliation with information on claims for benefit held in DHSS offices showed some people included in the monthly count who were no longer claiming benefit and some (a smaller number) who had not yet been included in the count even though they were claiming benefit. The net result was that the unadjusted July and August figures for Northern Ireland were 5 700 and 5 150 less respectively than they would have been without the reconciliation. If the figures had continued to be recorded as in June and earlier months there would have been increases in unemployment of about 3 150 in July and 650 in August. The accumulating discrepancy, since the present computer system was set up in October 1982, and the effect of the corrective action has now been taken into account in the seasonally adjusted series, so that it is consistent with the more accurate coverage of the current unadjusted data.

Note: The method used for compiling vacancy statistics has changed as from October 1985. See October issue of Source: Department of Employment Employment Gazette

 Included in South East.
 Vacancies on Government schemes (Enterprise Ulster and Action for community Employment(ACE)) are not separately identified for Northern Ireland prior to December 1983.
 The statistics of vacancy stocks were distorted in April and May because of a change in MSC's Employment Division's administrative arrangements. This led to an artificial increase in the April (March 29) level of unfilled vacancies, but the recorded stocks of unfilled vacancies for May should be minimally affected.

5. Includes vacancies on the Community Enterprise Programme, the forerunner of Community Programme.

Employment Gazette.

About one third of all vacancies are notified to Jobcentres. These could include some that are suitable for young persons and similarly vacancies notified to careers offices could include some for adults. Because of possible duplication the two series should not be added together. The figures represent only the number of vacancies notified by employers and remaining unfilled on the day of the count.

Excludes stoppages involving fewer than 10 workers or lasting less than one day except any in which the total number of working days lost exceeded 100. There may be some under-recording of small or short stoppages; this would have much more effect on the total stoppages than on working days lost. The figures for 1986 are provisional.
 The figures of working days lost relate to the total working days lost within each of the periods shown as a result of stoppages in progress in that period, whether the stoppages began in that period or earlier.

Consumption by fuel producers plus disposals to final users plus (for annual figures only) net foreign trade and stock change in other solid fuels. See also footnotes 6. and 7. to Table 8.5.
 Inland deliveries for energy use plus refinery fuel and losses minus the differences between deliveries to and actual consumption at power stations and gas works.
 Including non-energy use and excluding gas flared or re-injected.
 Also temperature corrected.
 From August 1985, the figures show the estimated annual outturn.

mackly totals or averaged

The four-weekly averages for each year are computed from calendar year totals.

Statistics of visible trade on a balance of payments basis (shown in Table 16.1) are obtained by making certain adjustments in respect of valuation and coverage to the statistics recorded in the Overseas Trade Statistics.
These adjustments are described in detail in United Kingdom Balance of Payments 1983 Edition.
 Export unit value as a percentage of the import unit value index.

Prior to 1st January 1986 items valued at less than £200 have not been allocated to specific countries and areas. With effect from 1st January 1986 the threshold has been raised to £475.

<sup>1.</sup> The ratios were first introduced in an article in the August 1977 edition of Economic Trends 'The Home and Export Performance of United Kingdom Industries' which described the conceptual and methodological problems involved in measuring such variables as 'import penetration'. The latest ratios for the full detail within manufacturing (over 200 AHs) are shown in business monitor MQ12 Import Penetration and Export Sales for Manufacturing Industry. An article in Economic Trends giving a longer back run of the ratios on a Standard Industrial Classification 1990 basis is planned for release at a later date.

2. The calculation of the ratios is inappropriate for certain industries. In such cases, and where suitable data are not available, the industry has been omitted from the analysis. The Activity Headings concerned are: AH2247.2 Precious metals, AH 2396(pt) Unworked precious stones, AH2436 Ready-mixed concrete, AH3138 Heat and surface treatment of metals, AH3246 Process engineering contractors, AH3480 Electrical equipment installation, AH4121 Slaughterhouses, AH4370 Textile finishing, AH4560 Fur goods, AH4672 Shop and office fitting, AH4910 Jewellery and coins, AH4330 Photographic and cinematographic processing laboratories.

1. Assets: increase – / decrease + . Liabilities: increase + / decrease –. Excluding official financing.

2. Excluding trade credit between related firms (part of United Kingdom and overseas private investment).

3. Excluding changes in levels resulting from changes in sterling valuation: see notes on pages 40 and 52 of UK Balance of Payments 1985 Edition.

4. Prior to 1982 includes transactions by 'other financial institutions'. For 1982 onwards these data relate only to transactions reported by UK monetary sector institutions. Transactions by 'other financial institutions' are included within 'other external borrowing or lending'.

5. Sterling reserves of overseas countries and international organisations, other than the IMF, as reported by UK banks, etc., in the United Kingdom.

6. Excluding credit for UK exports.

7. From 1982 onwards includes transactions by 'other financial institutions' (see footnote 4).

The estimate included for the latest quarter excludes a substantial part of the private sector borrowing from and lending to banks, etc., overseas.

are valued at the average of the middle market closing rates in the three months to end-March, or at their actual dollar value on the last working day of March, whichever is the lower. Gold is valued at the average of the London fixing prices for the three months up to end-March less a 25 per cent discount or at 75 per cent of its final fixing price, on the last working day of March, whichever is lower. Data denominated or expressed in dollars are converted to sterling at end-period middle-market rates.

2. Drawings from the IMF, excluding interest and charges and net of repayments to and drawings from the IMF by other countries in sterling. This item also excludes transactions which affect the UK reserve position in the IMF, which is included within official reserves.

3. Official financing liabilities are first valued in US dollars at the rate used in valuing the convertible currencies element of the reserves, and are then, like the US dollar total of the reserves, translated at sterling at end-period middle-market rates.

for M2 are the levels as at the mid-December dates; the figures for broad money (£M3 and PSL2) are the levels as at 31 December. For broad money, the figures for end-December 1981 show, in the first line, levels on the basis of the old banking sector and in the second line, on the basis of the new monetary sector. Banking sector levels at end-December 1981 are partly estimated.

2. The figures for M0 are the changes between the average levels in the banking months ending in the dates shown.

3. PSL2 has been redefined to include term shares and SAYE deposits with building societies and bank deposits with an orginal maturity of over two years.

Figures are available from the beginning of 1984.

<sup>1.</sup> The Cost of Living Advisory Committee (now renamed the Retail Prices Index Advisory Committee) recommended in 1962 that until a satisfactory index series based on actual prices became available half the expenditure on meals out should continue to be allocated to the food group and the other half spread proportionately over all groups, including the food group. The index for meals out for 16 January 1968 implicit in this recommendation was 121.4. Since January 1968 an index series based on actual prices has been available and indices in this series have been linked with the implicit index for meals out for 16 January 1968, to obtain indices for meals out with 16 January 1962 taken as 100.

Note: The purpose and methodology of the Tax and price index were described in an article in the August 1979 issue of Economic Trends and in the September Economic Progress Report published by the Treasury. The purpose is to produce a single index which measures changes in both direct taxes (including national insurance contributions) and in retail prices for a representative cross-section of taxpayers. Thus, while the Retail prices index may be used to measure changes in the purchasing power of after-tax income (and of the income of non-taxpayers) the Tax and price index takes account of the fact that taxpayers will have more or less to spend according to changes in direct taxation. The index measures the change in gross taxable income which would maintain after tax income in real terms.

1. These figures reflect the late timing of the 1979 budget.

 Because of a dispute in the steel industry, insufficient information is available to enable a reliable index for 'metal processing and manufacturing' to be calculated, but the best possible estimates have been used in the compilation of the indices for manufacturing and whole economy. The index series for this group has a base of April 1980=100.
